Outstanding account list is displayed in the [trading] tab of the terminal.

The screenshot shows a trading terminal interface. On the left, the 'Market Watch' window displays a list of currency pairs with their current bid and ask prices. Below it is the 'Navigator' window showing the account structure. On the right, a price chart for USDJPY is shown with a right-click context menu open. The menu includes options like 'Trading', 'Depth Of Market', 'One Click Trading', 'Timeframes', 'Template', 'Refresh', 'Auto Arrange', 'Grid', 'Volumes', 'Zoom In', 'Zoom Out', 'Save As Picture...', 'Print Preview', 'Print...', and 'Properties...'. The 'New Order' option is highlighted, and a sub-menu is visible showing 'Sell Limit 0.01 122.900', 'Buy Stop 0.01 122.900', 'Alert 122.900', and 'New Order F9'.

It is also possible to place an order from the chart. Right click the upper part of the chart and select the “place order” from the menu. Furthermore, by clicking the “New Order”, the “new order” window opens.

That is the simple ordering method. Although we only introduced the progress ordering, Please try once the progress ordering in the Demo account.
